

CALL FOR ARTISTIC CREATION ON THE THEME OF MIRRORS

We are calling on all visionary artists to explore the fascinating world of mirrors through their creativity. The mirror, symbol of reflection, duality and perception, offers a rich terrain for varied interpretations.

The notion of the mirror in art transcends the simple literal representation of this object.

Artists often explore the mirror as a mean of reflecting on deeper themes, going beyond the reflective surface. Here are just a few of the ways in which the notion of the mirror is addressed in art:

1. Reflecting Identity: artists use the mirror to explore self-perception and identity. Works can play with the duality between outer image and inner reality, questioning how we perceive ourselves and how we are perceived by others.
2. Distortion of Reality: some artists deliberately distort reflections in the mirror to create alternative perspectives and destabilize the viewer's perception. This can lead to abstract or surrealist works.
3. Metaphor for Truth: the mirror is sometimes used as a metaphor for the search for truth. Artists explore ideas of the truth hidden behind the reflective surface, highlighting the complexity and duality of reality.
4. Interactivity: art installations involving mirrors can create interactive experiences. Viewers become an integral part of the work by interacting with their own reflection, thus passively transforming art into a participatory experience.

5. Temporality and Memory: some artists use mirrors to explore the passage of time and memory. Reflections can symbolize past moments, lending a temporal dimension to the work.

6. Visual composition: mirrors are used to create complex visual compositions by playing with light, angle and repetition. This can lead to geometric works or optical illusions.

Express yourself through visual works, sculptures, photographs and performances that explore the many facets of the mirror. Dive into its metaphorical power, explore the contrasts between reality and reflection, and reveal the mysteries of identity, self-image and truth.
